Payment is required before any member, including children on the swim team, uses the facilities.

- Membership related payments cannot be accepted at the pool.
- Members not returning are requested to advise the membership coordinator of their decision so that those on the waiting list may be invited to join.

May 1 Deadline: Granite policy requires all members make a commitment as to their intention to renew membership by making at least a half payment by May 1st. Members whose payments are not paid online or postmarked by May 1st will be considered inactive. Membership privileges will be restored only if space is available.

Early Payment Discount: As indicated above membership dues are $25 less for any payment is paid online or postmarked on or before April 12th.

Installment Plan: Members may elect to pay in two installments. An additional $25 transaction fee will be applied. The first installment must be postmarked on or before May 1st; the second installment must be postmarked on or before June 30th. Unless other arrangements have been approved a late fee of $50 will be assessed on any account not paid in full by 30 June.

Sabbatical: Members who wish to opt out for a summer may pay a $75 fee by May 1 to put their membership on hold until the following year. Unless otherwise approved sabbaticals may not be taken in consecutive years.
